Big Bad Wolf - Part 2

1

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

Who is the “Big Bad Wolf”?

CSIET?

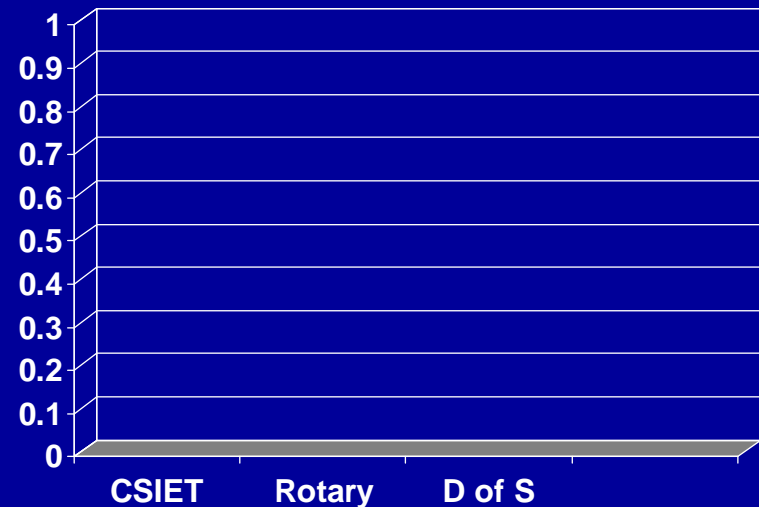

Rotary?

Department of State

The Big Bad Wolf is:

- 0% 1. CSIET
- 0% 2. Rotary
- 0% 3. Department of State

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

Who should be afraid?

Districts that don't...

follow the requirements of 22 CFR Part 62

do timely background checks

do required training

visit with students monthly, etc.

have thorough documentation

All of us!!!

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

What do we know about wolves?

Protect their young

They are carnivorous

They attack weak and infirm but sometimes others

Hunt from concealment

Wait for prey to be distracted

Howl to protect territory and coordinate attack

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

Did you hear that??

The wolf is howling

It wants to protect the young Exchange Students

It wants to protect the territory of its staff and their responsibilities at DoS

We can not let ourselves be distracted

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

Did you feel that ?

Here are the first nibbles:

Host families must have a separate orientation after the application process is completed.

Monthly schedule of personal contact including one in-person and in-private visit

First monthly visit by someone who did not arrange the exchange

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

More nibbles....

No one act as host family and as local coordinator or area supervisor for an individual student

Send a copy of a DoS letter to each student before they depart for the US

Identification cards must include name of health insurer and policy number

Conduct in-person, individual-by-individual host family interviews

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

Still nips.....

Standard host family application that includes photos of the inside and outside of the home

Application includes income level of hosts, family members with disabilities, religious affiliations, and school activities, dietary restrictions, personal activities

Host family home requirements (fire exit and bathroom access, study and storage space, etc.)

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

More little bites....

Staff and volunteers can not be host references

Hosts can not be receiving government needs-based subsidies

No single adult host families

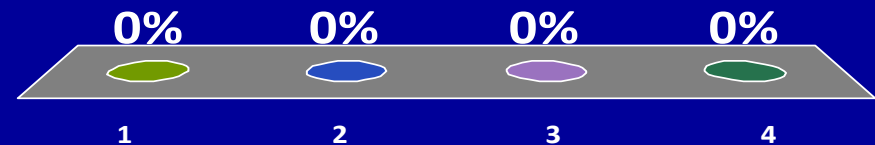

“Worst practices” a part of host orientation

DoS letter to all selected host families

That wasn't so bad....

OWWWW!!

Here come the big bites.....

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

I think I'm bleeding....

Additional background check requirements:

FBI background checks

Fingerprint-based

Annual background check for hosts and counselors, etc.

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

This really hurts....

$18.00 per person checked

++ Local charges of 0-$90 per check

8-10 weeks processing

With 2-3 host families plus Rotarians, at 10
CBC per student, $180-1200 additional per YES

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

EEK here's another huge bite....

Training requirement for all representatives and volunteers

8 hours on DoS program, rules, regulations, host family selection, sexual abuse

Annual 3 hour refresher course.

Conducted by full-time employee.

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

How can we protect ourselves:

Response letters to the DoS

Lobbying to Senators, Representatives, and Secretary Clinton

Contingency plans for compliance

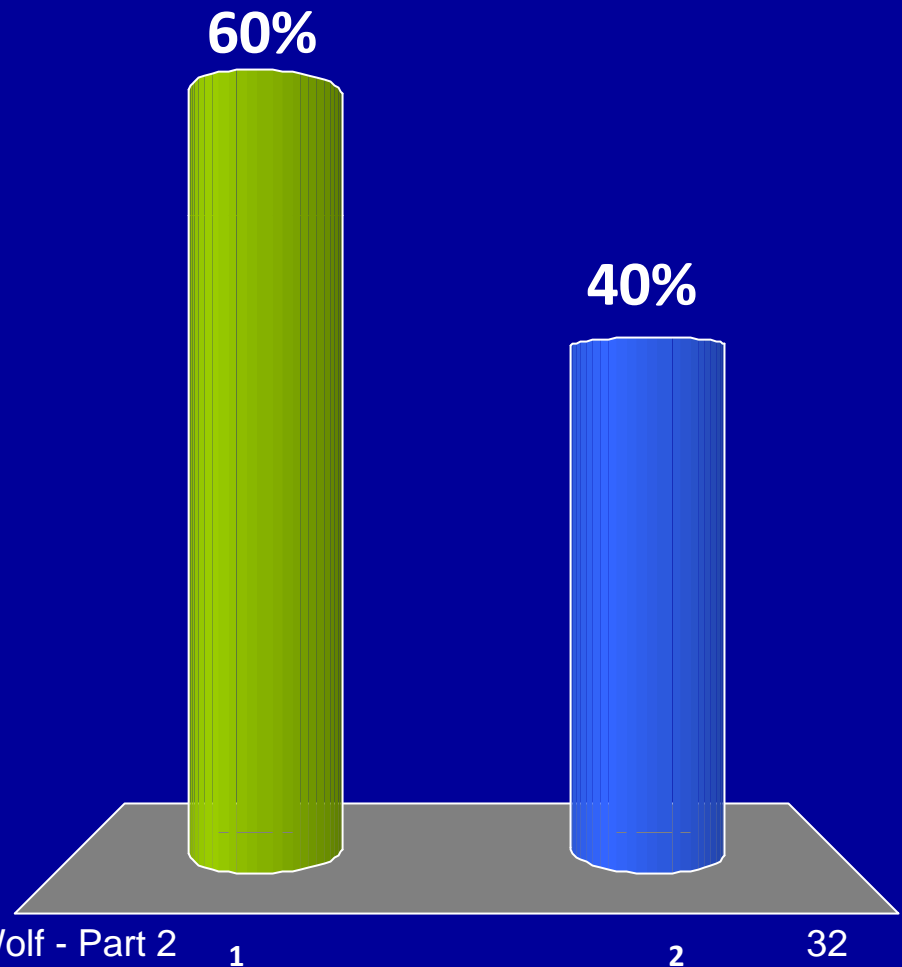

Change our program

Improve our compliance with current requirements

The wolf is getting ready and we must prepare to fight back!

Numerous additional new requirements

Some are minor

Some are an inconvenience

Some are expensive

Some may be lethal to some of us Or all of us!
