Annual Conference

“Any language where the unassuming word 'fly' signifies an annoying insect, a means of travel, and a critical part of a gentleman's apparel is clearly asking to be mangled.”

Bill Byerson

“Not only does the English language borrow words from other languages, it sometimes chases them down dark alleys, hits them over the head, and goes through their pockets.”

Eddy Peters

"Yesterday, I gave up looking for a joe job, cashed my pogeey, and took off to buy a mickey of C.C. on my skidoo. But we'd just had a chinook, so I got stuck in the muskeg trying to deke out a deer.

And then a real keener of a Mountie snuck up behind me in a ghost car and gave me an impaired. And he wouldn't give me another kick at the cat.

Having earlier consumed a 2-4 of Blue, I was sitting there dressed only in my Stanfields, runners and a toque at the time. And the Mountie, he gets all chippy about it. Bummer eh?"
